

Smartphone competition entry conditions

1. The competition is open to anyone living in Switzerland aged 14 or older who registers through the first-interest tool at www.swisscom.ch/en/residential/products/news/music-festival-jbl.html. Employees of Swisscom (Switzerland) Ltd and all participating service providers (sponsors and partners) are not eligible to take part.
2. Participation is free of charge and does not require a purchase. There are no contractual obligations.
3. The competition runs from 24.06.2024 until 30.07.2024. Eligible persons who enter their details in the first interest tool will receive one automatic entry into the competition. Entry is therefore only possible at www.swisscom.ch/en/residential/products/news/music-festival-jbl.html.
4. To take part, all entrants must provide their first and last name, a valid e-mail address and a mobile phone number. This helps confirm the identity of the entrants and ensures that Swisscom is able to contact the winners.
5. An e-mail address primarily serves to identify the participant. If a winner provides an invalid e-mail address and/or an invalid mobile phone number and Swisscom (Switzerland) Ltd is unable to reach them as a result, they shall lose their claim to a prize.
6. Fifteen winners will be chosen at random from among the entrants who meet the above criteria.
7. Each of these 15 winners will receive a prize in the form of a JBL Flip 6 or a JBL Xtreme 4 speaker. Swisscom decides on the specific model.
8. Prizes cannot be exchanged and there is no alternative cash prize. Unclaimed prizes will be awarded to a new, randomly selected winner. No correspondence about the competition will be entered into.
9. In the event of suspected tampering or breach of the entry conditions, Swisscom (Switzerland) Ltd reserves the right to exclude participants from the competition.
10. Swisscom reserves the right to change the terms and conditions, especially in cases of misconduct.
11. Legal recourse is excluded.
