

Terms for the Netflix bundle

- The Netflix service is provided to you by Netflix International B.V., under the Netflix Terms of Use, which will be provided to you separately.
- In order to enjoy the Netflix service as part of your Swisscom (Schweiz) AG ("Swisscom") offer, you will need to complete the Netflix activation process. You will receive instructions via email or text message.
- If you have an existing Netflix service account, you can link it to your Swisscom (Schweiz) AG ("Swisscom") offer when you complete the Netflix activation process. You will continue to be charged separately for any existing Netflix service account until you link that account to your Swisscom (Schweiz) AG ("Swisscom") offer. For any queries regarding your billing with Netflix for your existing Netflix service account please contact Netflix directly.
- Cancellation of Netflix as part of your Swisscom (Schweiz) AG ("Swisscom") offer will not automatically cancel any pre-existing linked Netflix service account and Netflix will automatically resume charging any existing method of payment of yours that they have on file. If you wish to review the details of your Netflix membership please visit the 'Account' pages on the Netflix website.
- Swisscom (Schweiz) AG ("Swisscom") will share the email address and/or phone number registered to your Swisscom (Schweiz) AG ("Swisscom") account with Netflix to facilitate your activation of the Netflix service included in your Swisscom (Schweiz) AG ("Swisscom") offer. For further information about how Swisscom (Schweiz) AG ("Swisscom") handles your personal data, please visit the Privacy Notice available on [<https://www.swisscom.ch/en/residential/legal-information/online-privacy.html>]. You can view Netflix's Privacy Statement on the Netflix website.
